

Crop production includes all the feed sources that the required to maintain the dairy herd and the resource inputs used to produce the crops.